

CANFORD

LEAVERS 2018

THE BOURNE ACADEMY

Javier Monroy Yopez

Javier is passionate about all aspects of Politics and is hoping to move into a career in a politically related environment.

Joining Canford as a scholar; Javier was an enthusiastic contributor to the academic life of the school. He particularly enjoyed public speaking and debating and represented Canford in three Model UN debates. He also took part in two school mock elections and was very proud to win one of these.

He gave a number of talks at the school's invitation-only Heretics Society run by the English department, and also presented a paper at the Global Forum on Communism entitled 'The Real and Only Korea.'

Javier gained A Levels in French, History, Politics and Spanish and is now at Exeter University studying Politics and International Relations.
