

CANFORD

LEAVERS 2020

THE BOURNE ACADEMY

Sidney Beckles

Sidney has a strong work ethic, focus and ambition developed through her time at Canford and various work experiences such as at a law firm, Comax UK and in her summer cafe job. She has developed a keen interest in Philosophy and was an active member of the school heretics discussion society, particularly enjoying any debate on philosophical topics. Sidney is also a fine netball player and captained the 1st VII netball team in her final year.

Sidney gained A Levels in English, History and Religious Studies and is now at King's University, London reading Philosophy.

Amelia Merrick

Amelia is passionate about sport. She enjoys karate and became Southern Champion for her age and belt for two years running. Her love of sport is not just through competing but also coaching younger year groups and learning about the sociological side.

Amelia has been involved in multiple volunteering and fundraising activities while at Canford, from working with children with disabilities to helping in a primary school and taking part in many fundraising sport events for charity.

Amelia gained A Levels in English, History and Physical Education and is now at Winchester University reading Educational Studies and History.
